

1874.

The Texas law authorized a battalion of 450 men. — six Companies of 75 men each. — The legislature never appropriated enough money to sustain such a force. By the close of 1875, it had peaked at 5 companies, each consisting of a Captain and 24 rangers.